Dear Sir or Madam:

Regarding the filing receipt issued for Regular Patent Application # 10/786,946, Confirmation # 3785, the "Domestic Priority data as claimed by applicant" is missing. I therefore request that a corrected receipt be issued.

Enclosed is a copy of the Filing Receipt with the omission of aforementioned data denoted with red markings, a copy of page 2 of the Patent Application with the request for priority indicated with red marking, and a copy of the Provisional Patent Application on which claim of priority is based.

I thank you for your time and greatly appreciate your attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

David Douglas Winters

14 Background of the Invention

15 This invention relates generally to the field of board games and more specifically 16 to a machine and process consisting of an auto racing board game and method for 17 playing.

18 Board games have an extensive, well-known history, and may be used to 19 simulate real-life circumstances or sporting events or to provide intellectual stimulation.
20 They typically utilize a game board, game pieces or tokens, chance devices, such as 21 dice or a shuffled deck of cards, and a means for recording player scores. Racing
22 games have long been extant in the prior art and due to the ever increasing popularity
23 of automobile racing, board games that simulate automobile racing are also numerous.
